The International Conference on Computers and Their Applications (CATA) provides an international forum for presentation and discussion of research on computers and their applications. The CATA-2006 will feature contributed as well as invited papers concerned with theory, practice and applications. The topics will include, but are not limited to, the following areas:

- Algorithms
- Artificial Intelligence
- Biomedical Engineering
- Bioinformatics and Geoinformatics
- Compilers
- Computer-aided Design/manufacturing
- Computer and Network Security
- Computer Architecture and VLSI
- Computer Graphics
- Computer Modeling
- Computer Networks
- Computer Simulation
- Computer Vision
- Computing Practice and Applications
- Control Systems
- Data Communications
- Databases
- Data Mining and Knowledge Discovery
- Digital Signal Processing
- Expert Systems
- Human-Computer Interface and Visualization
- Image Processing
- Information Systems
- Multimedia Applications
- Neural Networks
- Operating & Distributed Systems
- Parallel Processing
- Pattern Recognition
- Programming Languages
- Real-time Computing
- Robotics
- Software Engineering and CASE
- Text Processing
- Databases

Instructions to Authors

A full paper (not to exceed 15 double-spaced pages), including title, author's name(s), affiliation, mailing address, telephone, fax and e-mail of the principal author should reach the Program Chair on or before November 4, 2005. Papers will be accepted only by electronic submission (PDF or Word format). The submitted manuscript should closely reflect the final paper as it will appear in the Proceedings, which will be a maximum of 6 pages (+2 pages with additional page charges) in ISCA double-column format. (see http://www.isca-hq.org/sample-isca-manuscript-format.pdf)

Dr. David Jeff Jackson
Telephone: (205) 348-2919
Electrical and Computer Engr.
Fax: (205) 348-6959
The University of Alabama
E-mail: jjackson@eng.ua.edu
Tuscaloosa, AL 35487

Authors wishing to have their papers reviewed for possible publication in the ISCA Journal of Computers and Applications should send expanded versions of their papers directly to the Editor, Prof. Reda Ammar (See Instructions to Authors at: http://www.isca-hq.org/j-authr.htm ).
